AN ACT ^{Reviser's catalog}; relating to: the advice and consent of the senate.

during the legislative session
biennium

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

The bill provides that any individual nominated by the governor or another state officer or agency, and with the advice and consent of the senate appointed, to any office or position may not hold the office or position, be nominated again for the office or position, or perform any duties of the office or position if the individual's confirmation for the office or position is rejected by the senate. Currently, there is no prohibition against the governor or another state officer or agency nominating the individual again for the office or position or appointing the individual to the office or position as a provisional appointment.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 13.127 of the statutes is created to read:

13.127 Advice and consent of the senate. Any individual nominated by the
